Comments from Evaluator :

Ikedoo is a very passionate social project inspired by mobile school <http://www.mobileschool.org/en> the street children belgium project. The idea is not strictly edtech as the main purpose is to bring innovative educational applications and technologies to the streets to have children try them directly. I am not sure that the OEC can be of any help at this stage as what is first needed is to secure the financing in Romania and this should go through CSR donors.
