Comments from Evaluator :

That is a very original project. We understand that you have multiple targets but we wonder how large is the primary one. We would like to better understand your go-to-market strategy, will you launch a comprehensive module at once or start with some modules? Why do you require so much money to launch the project - what will be the use of proceeds of the 2.6m € that you need? Have you planned to have someone with a strong educational background in your team ? We are a bit skeptical about the positioning.
