Comments from Evaluator 1:

The concept is good and the first developments are interesting. However, we would like to better undertand how you position yourself with regards to larger players such as Udemy and what is your go-t0-market approach to cover a global market.

Comments from Evaluator 2:

The learnworlds concept is exciting, however the team lack business / marketing and UX skills needed to make it a success. The technology section of the application lacks detail, and it is hard to judge how robust and scalable the solution is. Consider including a learning analytics component.
